Introduction

Open Mike Productions is committed to implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter bribery and corruption. Therefore, it is the Company's policy to conduct all aspects of its business in an honest and ethical manner at all times. Under UK law (UK Bribery Act 2010), bribery and corruption is punishable for individuals by up to ten years imprisonment. If the Company is found to have taken part in the corruption or lacks adequate procedures to prevent Bribery, it could face an unlimited fine and be excluded from tendering for Government contracts.

What is bribery?

A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage. There are four types of offence set out in the Bribery Act 2010:

- Giving a bribe;
- Receiving a bribe;
- Bribing a foreign public official; and
- A corporate offence of failing to prevent bribery by an associated person for the organisation's benefit.

Policy

The aim of this policy is to help Open Mike Productions act in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010, maintain the highest possible standards of business practice, and advise individuals of the Company's 'zero-tolerance' to bribery. This policy applies to all permanent and fixed-term staff employed by the Company, and any contractors, consultants or other persons acting under or on behalf of the Company.

Open Mike Productions will not:

- Make contributions of any kind with the purpose of gaining any commercial advantage.
- Provide gifts or hospitality with the intention of persuading anyone to act improperly, or to influence a public official in the performance of their duties.
- Make, or accept, "kickbacks" of any kind.

Company Responsibility

The Company will:

- Keep appropriate internal records that will evidence the business reason for making any payments to third parties.
- Encourage employees to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of malpractice at the earliest possible stage.

- See that anyone raising a concern about bribery will not suffer any detriment as a result, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

Employee Responsibility:

Employees must not:

- Accept any financial or other reward from any person in return for providing some favour.
- Request a financial or other reward from any person in return for providing some favour.
- Offer any financial or other reward from any person in return for providing some favour.

Gifts and hospitality

Open Mike Productions recognises that gifts and hospitality are a normal part of business and that Third Parties may wish to give and/or receive gifts and hospitality to and from Open Mike Productions, and to and from anyone working on behalf of the Third Party in order to complete the services for Open Mike Productions.

However, it is important that when giving or receiving gifts or hospitality, consideration is given as to whether such gifts and/or hospitality are normal and appropriate. Open Mike Productions expects that when working with us, Third Parties will consider whether or not others within the industry (who are acting reasonably and justifiably) are conducting themselves in such a way. Consider whether the gift or hospitality appears 'lavish' and out of the ordinary in the circumstances. If the gift/hospitality is not something that would normally be given in the industry by those acting reasonably and justifiably, consider why it is being offered.

Open Mike Productions appreciates that the market practice of giving business gifts varies. The test to be applied is whether in all the circumstances the gift or hospitality is reasonable and justifiable. The intention behind the gift should always be considered.

Non Compliance

All employees have a role to play in enforcing the policy and are required to deal with any observed or reported breaches. Should employees feel apprehensive about their own safety in regard to addressing any breach, they should seek senior management support.

Failure to comply with this policy may lead to a lack of clarity over job role, learning needs or expected standards of performance, resulting in reduced effectiveness or efficiency, underperformance and putting service delivery at risk.

Any member of staff refusing to observe the policy will be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's Disciplinary Policy up to and including dismissal.

Implementation of the Policy

Overall responsibility for policy implementation and review rests with the Company senior management. However, all employees are required to adhere to and support the implementation of the policy. The Company will inform all existing employees about this policy and their role in the implementation of the policy. They will also give all new employees notice of the policy on induction to the Company.

This policy will be implemented through the development and maintenance of procedures for appraisals and one-to-one meetings, using template forms, and guidance given to both managers and employees on the process.
